

Q&AS FOR SUPPLIERS

1. What does the merger mean for suppliers?

This merger will create significant opportunities for our suppliers in the future.

For right now, everything will remain business as usual.

As the merger progresses, we will look forward to working with our suppliers to explore future opportunities which will become available across the combined network.

2. Will there be any changes to my account?

Please be assured that for now, it is business as usual. You should continue to liaise with the same people in the same locations as you normally do.

We will be in touch shortly to provide further details.

3. Will I now be able to supply to the combined network of the merged entity?

This merger will create significant opportunities for our suppliers in the future.

Everything will remain business as usual for now and there will be no immediate impact to the relationship we have with you.

We will be in touch shortly to provide further details and will keep you informed as the merger progresses in regards to any changes or opportunities that may arise.

4. Will there be any change to the people I deal with or the locations I deliver to?

For right now, please continue to liaise with the same people in the same locations as you normally do.

We will be in touch shortly to provide further relevant information.

5. When is the Terry White Group conference and how do I register for the supplier's breakfast?

The Terry White Group conference is being held on 14 August 2016

To register for the supplier's breakfast, please click here.

6. When will the supplier forums be held?

We expect the forums will be held in mid to late September. We will be registering interest at the conference for forums in Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane and will then confirm specific dates and locations.
